

Matrimonial Contract

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS MAY COME, GREETINGS; in the sight of God and before the Ministry and Rites of the Church, all those present and the world, according to Natural Right, We do hereby with this solemn declaration, due consideration and mutual consent take and have taken, upon the _____ day of the month of _____, in the year of our Lord _____, each other as lawfully Wedded Husband and Wife, to have and to hold for all the days of our lives and do promise by this renewal of Holy Vows in the sight of God, our blessed and divine Father in Heaven, and this binding agreement upon this the _____ day of the month of _____, in the year of our Lord _____ and do love, honor, comfort and cherish each other for better or for worse, for richer or for poorer, in sickness and in health, and forsaking all others, will remain only unto each other for as long as we both shall live and do grant and bestow in Holy Wedlock all that is our own before God, pledging ourselves to live out our lives according to the doctrines and ordinances of Jesus Christ and the Law and Customs of Holy Matrimony as instituted by the Creator of us all.

_____ and _____ [Husband] [Wife]

As For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and cleave to his wife; And they twain shall be one flesh: so then they are no more twain, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder. Mark 10:7-9

The truth of this contract as Husband and Wife in a compact of eternal bonds of love, by the interchange of rings, the mutual joinder of hands and the exchange of vows before signed witnesses in accordance with the ceremonies and customs of law and Rites and permanence of marriage, is hereby certified and confirmed by a Ministers of the Church in their function and office and supersedes all other contracts as the primary bond as Husband and Wife before God and Man.

Signed _____, a minister of the Church, this month of _____,
on this _____ day, in the year of our Lord Two thousand and _____.

Signed _____, this month of _____, on this _____ day, in the year of our Lord Two thousand and _____.

HHC M.C.

Primary Remedy for this contract is by arbitration before the Church in accordance with the dictates of Jesus Christ to His appointed Ministers, the polity of the Church and Cannon Law and supersedes all other contracts.